

HARDING WILL FIGHT H.C OF L HE STATES SUNDAY

Holds Conference With Daugherty and Hays.
TO STAY IN MARION
Colored Leaders Voice the Support Of Nominee.

BY A. W. HAYWARD.
Marion, O., July 14.—Transportation problems, the high freight charges and other factors in the cost of living were discussed today by Senator Warren G. Harding.
It is understood that Senator Harding will emphasize in his acceptance speech the necessity for domestic readjustments to remedy the evils of the high cost of living against which there is complaint from every section of the country. What recommendations the senator will make have not been indicated.

Mr. F. R. H. r-p c-Fess ereIncoRW&
Senator Cummins is chairman of the Senate interstate commerce committee, and is a recognized expert on transportation matters. He has just finished successfully a campaign for renomination to the senate from Iowa. In his fight an issue was the high living cost, and the burden placed on the consumer and the shipper by the high transportation charges. Senator Harding will get the benefit of the information and experience of Senator Cummins.

Political leaders in Ohio and Indiana have reported to Harding headquarters that the high cost of living is one of the great issues of the campaign in their states. They say that it overshadows any other issue, and that any suggestions or recommendations offering a remedy arouse the interest and holds the attention of the people more than any other discussion.
HOLDS CONFERENCE
At a conference held yesterday by Senator Harding with National Chairman Will F. Hays and Harry M. Daugherty, of Ohio, member of the Republican executive committee, the political campaigns in Ohio and Indiana were given consideration. It is the opinion of Daugherty that the chief fight of the Democrats is to be made in these states. The Republican leaders think that New York can be counted on to return a Republican plurality, but it is not to be neglected.

Because of the feeling of certainty that the hottest fight is to come in the middle-west Senator Harding adheres to his determination to stand by his earlier decision to remain at Marion for the greater part of the time and to conduct his "front porch campaign."
COLORED SUPPORT
Negro Republicans throughout the country are assuring Senator Harding of their support. He received letters yesterday from Colonel R. S. Abbott, of Chicago Defender; John W. Thompson, chairman of the executive committee of the New York state Republican council, which claims a membership of 300,000 colored men and women voters, and from Rev. N. T. Lane, pastor of a colored Baptist church in Kansas City, stating that the colored voters will support him.

CROPS BELOW NORMAL SAYS AGRICULTURE SECRETARY OF OHIO

State Will Not Grow Enough For Its Own Uses, Said.

Columbus, July 12.—Heavy decreases in Ohio's major crops, winter wheat, corn, oats, hay, potatoes and tobacco, and increases in the apple and peach crops, are forecast in the July report of the crop reporting service, made public by N. E. Shaw, secretary of the department of agriculture. For the first time in years the Buckeye state will not grow enough wheat to supply its own requirements. Ohio's normal wheat demand is from 25,000,000 to 30,000,000 bushels and the total crop now is estimated at 27,125,000 bushels. Last year the state produced a surplus of 25,000,000 bushels. The corn crop, says the report, is 86 per cent of normal, with a total probable production of 140,950,000 bushels. The decrease is due to a 2 per cent falling off in the corn acreage of the state. Production of oats will be but 81 per cent of normal, estimated at 51,731,000 bushels in the report. The hay crop estimate is considerably below average for former years, the dry weather during May and the early part of June stunting its growth. Potato acreage decreased 6 per cent, or 9,000 acres during the year, with promise of a total crop of 11,291,000 bushels.

Train Kills Two.
Toledo, July 12.—Charles A. Herman, 60, building contractor, and his wife were cut in two and instantly killed at Millbury, near here, when a Lake Shore train crashed into their automobile.

ROYAL CHILD BRIDE

DUTCHESS GALLESE.

The Duchess of Gallese, whose recent wedding to the Duke of Gallese, son of the famous Gabrielle D'Annunzio, in Rome, was accounted the most notable event of the season. The Duchess, who is but sixteen years old, was Donna Ninon Teresa before her marriage.

FLETCHER ISSUES WARNING TO COLBY ON MEXICAN MATTER

Seeks To Avoid Premature Recognition Of New Government.

Green Castle, Pa., July 12.—Henry P. Fletcher, former ambassador to Mexico, warned the administration against premature recognition of the new Mexican government.
In a letter to Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state, Fletcher urged that in no case should the recognition of the De la Huerta regime be other than that of a de facto character, with the understanding that even this would be withdrawn should subsequent events prove that it was prematurely extended.
Mr. Fletcher's letter resulted from negotiations now in progress between the state department and Dr. Iglesias Calderon, Mexican high commissioner to the United States, regarding recognition of the new government at Mexico City.
Dr. Iglesias Calderon has assured the American government of the desire of the new regime to live up to the obligations of a government, but Mr. Fletcher in his letter suggested that before any recognition was extended an informal agreement be made with the Mexican authorities that American citizens would not be deprived of their property rights without compensation and that such property as they were deprived of during the Carranza regime without compensation would be returned to them.
Mr. Fletcher was the American ambassador to Mexico during the Carranza administration, but resigned several months ago because of a disagreement with the American government's policy towards Mexico.

FORMER OFFICER HELD WITHOUT BAIL ON MURDER CHARGE

Carl Wanderer, Confessed Slayer of Two, Held By Jury.

Chicago, July 12.—Carl Wanderer, former army lieutenant, confessed slayer of two persons, one of whom was his wife, a pretty choir singer, and the other a man with whom he had plotted to take her life, was ordered held without bail on a charge of murder by a coroner's jury. At the same time the ragged stranger, whose body has been unclaimed at the county morgue since the night of the crime, nearly three weeks ago, was declared to be that of Al Watson, former Canadian soldier. Wanderer placed blame for the tragedy on his familiarity with firearms in the army, his roving temperament and his association with his father's butcher shop.

SENATOR CAPPER SCORES THE DEM. CONVENTION

Says "Hell's Half Acre" Dominated the Frisco Meet

BOOZE RULED, HE SAYS

Cox Nominated With Loosening Volstead Act, Says Capper

Washington, July 12.—"Tammany, New York, Jersey lightning, New Jersey and rummies, Rhode Island, constituting Hell's half acre in the United States, dominated the San Francisco convention and with wet ward bosses from the cities and other 'brown jug' Democrats prevented a 'dry plank getting into the platform,'" said Senator Arthur Capper. In a statement made public here today.

"The big booze bosses and the little brown jug staged a political conspiracy to weaken if not nullify constitutional prohibition by giving aid and encouragement to a flabby and perfunctory enforcement of the Volstead law. This is one of the ways we make laws in America and then break them. There are millions of 'wets' in the United States predominantly in the larger cities and pivotal states," Capper's statement continues. "New York and New Jersey are frankly in rebellion against prohibition. The 'wets' have great hope of Massachusetts and they believe they can get back Ohio. It was a jolt for them when the Chicago platform refused to challenge the drastic Volstead act. Then they set their pins to capture the Democratic convention."

"Governor Cox has a good record as governor of Ohio but was not nominated on that account. He was chosen with the expectation that if elected he will lend his power in loosening up the Volstead act and help New York and other wet states to get back to the use of beer and wines under the guise of states rights. "While prohibition was ratified during a national Democratic administration, the party nationally has never stood for prohibition or its enforcement. War prohibition was forced on President Wilson who tried to put an end to it and allow the country to go on a big spree before constitutional prohibition began. It is pointed out Wilson has never uttered a word to aid those who made the fight for ratification or for the passage of the law enforcing prohibition. "The booze interests now have set out to elect a president. After November we shall know whether a political party can carry a presidential election in this country by sprinkling a little booze on its clothes."

GOVERNOR COX AGAIN AT WORK IN COLUMBUS GIVEN RECEPTION

Nominee Says Real Dirt Farmer To Be Agricultural Secretary.

Columbus, July 12.—Governor Cox arrived in Columbus today from Dayton and resumed work at the executive office. A reception was tendered him by state employees at the capitol. Music was rendered by the Columbus Democratic Glee club.
Governor Cox, in a statement made at Dayton, declared that a real dirt farmer will be the next secretary of agriculture if the Democratic party is successful at the November election. This statement was made to a delegation of the governor's neighborhood farmers who called at his home at Trail's End.
Former Congressman T. T. Ansberry of Washington, from San Francisco, gave the presidential nominee first-hand details of the convention activities which resulted in his selection to lead the party. Mrs. Ansberry told the governor that the credit for his victory goes to E. H. Moore of Youngstown, his pre-convention manager, whom Ansberry described as a "real man and manager."

This afternoon Franklin D. Roosevelt, Cox's running mate, will stop over for a few hours, on his return from San Francisco, for a conference.

COLUMBUS LINEMEN THREATEN STRIKE

Columbus, O., July 12. — Threats to strike have been made by about 190 linemen, ground men and helpers, employed by the Municipal Electric Light and Columbus Rail-Light Plants if increased wages are not granted. The workers' demand includes $1 an hour for line foremen, 90 cents for linemen with three years experience, 75 cents for second class linemen and 60 cents for ground men and helpers.

REPUBLICAN NOMINEE BACK HOME

This is one of the first photographs of the Republican Presidential nominee and his wife after their return to Marion, Ohio, their home.

NOT SUPERSTITIOUS

Marion, O., July 12.—George H. Bean, of Orono, Maine, has written Senator Harding that the world will come to an end on or after August 4. He says: "August 4, 1920, the sun and moon, Venus, Mercury, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn and Neptune will be on one side of the world with Uranus in a continuation of the line on the other side, Isaiah XIII:13, will be fulfilled and the nations who participated in the world war will be submerged by the Atlantic ocean." The Harding headquarters will be kept open day and night despite the ominous prophecy, it is announced.

PARIS EDITOR SAYS SPA MEET TO BE FAILURE

Holds Belief That Germans Will Reject Coal Plan

WILL MAINTAIN STAND

Russian Polish Armistice Asked For In Note Today

Paris, July 12.—Pertinax, political editor of the Echo de Paris predicted today that the Spa conference would prove a failure instead of settling the outstanding German peace problems. He expressed the belief that the Germans, after consultation with the national assembly, would reject the proposals for Germany's future coal deliveries to France.

Hugo Stinnes, one of the German experts at Spa, was quoted in a dispatch to the Matin as saying: "We will never yield on the question of coal. I understand what this means for Germany, but we are determined to continue this attitude even if it results in the Spa conference ending in failure."

SPA, July 12.—An allied note to Russia asking for an armistice with Poland on eastern battle front was dispatched to Moscow today. Premier Grabski of Poland, has left for Warsaw to consult with the Polish government.

BRITISH TOMMIES MUST NOT KISS GIRLS

Dublin, July 12.—British "Tommies" who are trying to "pacify" Ireland, have been warned that death will be the penalty for flirting with Irish colleens. Notices have been posted by the Sinn Fein warning girls against walking out or talking to British soldiers. Near Tuam five to British soldiers, and cut off the hair of a girl because they had learned she had written a letter to a member of the Royal Irish constabulary.

QUICK RESTORED

London, July 12.—Quiet has been restored at Pekin following a series of minor skirmishes between revolutionary forces and government troops, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Tien Tsin today. The Chinese cabinet has ordered all followers of the Chihli party to disarm. Part of the Shanghai railway has been destroyed.

OHIAN CERTAIN OF SELECTION TO CHAIRMANSHIP

Ed. H. Moore Named To Head Democratic National Committee.

MANAGED GOV. COX

Governor Attributes His Nomination To Ohio Man

Dayton, Ohio, July 12.—Selection of Ed. H. Moore of Ohio as chairman of the Democratic national committee is regarded as almost a certainty when the committee meets here on July 20. Moore, who is national committeeman from this state, directed the campaign which brought to Governor James M. Cox, the Democratic nomination for the presidency. Governor Cox repeatedly expressed his admiration for the generalship displayed by Moore in the convention fight and has called Moore the "best organizer in the party. In as much as Governor Cox attributes his nomination to Moore, it is believed he will make every effort to have Moore national chairman and director in chief of the Cox campaign."

ATTITUDE OF LABOR TOWARD CANDIDATES IS NOW DETERMINED

No Publicity To Be Given Out Yet Is Announcement

Columbus, O., July 12.—Organized labor's attitude toward state and congressional political candidates throughout Ohio has been determined.

Publicity, however, will not be given until all questionnaires sent to candidates are returned and the central bodies of the Ohio Federation of Labor have approved the report made by the sub-committee of the executive board which compiled the record of the candidates.

The executive board includes John More, Columbus, president; John J. Quinn, vice president; T. J. Donnelly, Columbus, secretary; Grant Fink, Dayton; John J. Owens, Cleveland; John J. Graney, Youngstown; W. M. Morgan, Newark and Albert C. Haubrock, Cincinnati.
President Moore will tour Ohio and will visit all central bodies, informing the union workers as to the records of the various candidates.

YANKS DOWN TIGERS

Ruth Makes His Twenty-seventh Home Run of the Season.

New York, July 12.—New York made it three out of four from Detroit yesterday, winning the final game of the series, 6 to 5. The Tigers outbatted the Yankees, but with the exception of the sixth inning Mays kept the hits scattered. In the third Ruth hit his twenty-seventh home run of the season.

THIRD PARTY MEETS FOR LAUNCHING TODAY WITH FEW DELEGATES

Committee Of Forty-Eight and Labor Committee Are Still At Loggerheads Over the New Party Platform.

LABOR GATHERING IS AGAINST A FUSION

World War Veteran Addresses Labor Delegates Severely Attacking Great Britain and Favoring Fusion of Progressives.

Third Party Headquarters Convention Hall, Chicago, July 12.—The convention of the Committee of Forty-eight was called to order at 9:35 this morning. There was no quorum present and a recess was taken until sufficient delegates could arrive to make business possible.

Both conventions were late in getting under way today. The committee of 48 met at the Morrison Hotel and the labor party at Carman's Hall.

Chairman Christensen called the forty eight convention to order at 9:35 but it was found that there was not a quorum present and a recess was taken until sufficient delegates could arrive to make business possible.

At Carman's hall the delegates gathered 7:15. There was eager discussion of fusion possibilities. A great many delegates declared themselves against a fusion unless the forty eighters would agree to a plank in the platform which provides for governmental ownership and "democratic" control of all public utilities.

The sub-committees having in charge the amalgamation plans were at work today when the twin conventions got under way. Speakers were introduced to fill in the time before the committees could report.

The forty eight convention was addressed by John H. Kelly of Cincinnati, who favored a plank in the platform permitting migratory workers to vote.

At Carman's hall the labor delegates listened to Lester Barlow of the world war veterans. He said he favored the amalgamation of all progressive parties in Chicago and the delegates cheered wildly. He bitterly attacked Great Britain and declared that she was flooding the United States with British propaganda.

Chicago, July 12.—A third political party, combining a strong labor group with remnants of old progressive movement was all prepared for a launching in Chicago today. Unless plans of the leaders go awry at the last moment, tonight will see the new party taking shape.

The nucleus of the new movement is found in the Committee of Forty-eight and the American Labor party, both of which are in convention here. In addition there are at least a half dozen other groups of various shades of political belief and persuasion, that probably will be drawn in.

A series of over Sunday conferences one of which lasted into the early hours of this morning, resulted in an agreement being reached that an out and out fusion proposition was to be submitted today to each convention. Ratification is expected by the leaders to be but a matter of form.

The name of Senator Robert M. La Follette of Wisconsin is most frequently heard about the conventions as a presidential candidate. There is, however, considerable doubt whether the Wisconsin senator will accept the nomination if it is offered him. So far La Follette has not definitely committed himself.

It will be predominantly labor—recommending governmental ownership of railroads, mines and other public necessities.

RUSSIANS CAUSE POLES TO RETREAT FROM RIVER LINE

Poles Carry Out An Orderly Settlement Before Russia.

Warsaw, Poland, July 12.—The Poles have withdrawn from all their positions on the Beresina river line as a result of the continued assaults of the Russians.

Violent fighting was reported today in the region of Minsk, 285 miles northeast of Warsaw, and south of the Pripiet river.

North of Rovno the Poles have carried out an orderly retirement to previously fortified positions on the western bank of the Hoya river. Sarny, an important city at the junction of two railway lines 55 miles north of Rovno, has been taken by the Russians. Cavalry skirmishes are in progress around Dubna, one of the three fortresses of famous Volhynian triangle.

The Poles have recaptured some of the war material they lost when the fortress of Rovno fell into the Russian hands.

STEEL MILLS MAY CLOSE BECAUSE OF CAR SHORTAGE, SAID

Representatives Confer With Interstate Commerce Commission.

Washington, July 12.—A shut-down of steel mills is threatened because of car shortage, representatives of more than a score of steel manufacturers informed the Interstate commission. Daniel Willard, chairman of the advisory committee of the Association of Railway Executives, was equally insistent, however, that any general suspension of industry would be averted and that improvement was possible in the steel trade. "The steel mills are blocked with products, many closed and others will be before July 20 unless some relief can be obtained," declared J. F. Townsend, spokesman for the steel men, who explained that 22,300 cars would be required to move 1,500,000 tons of steel products which are piled up awaiting shipment in the Pittsburgh-Johnstown district. Mr. Townsend said, 641,500 tons of steel products, requiring 12,850 cars to move, are in the mills, on platforms and in open yards. The Buffalo-Cleveland-Lorain district, he added, has 346,332 tons of products, requiring 6,927 cars; the Youngstown district 171,960 tons, requiring 3,439 cars, and the Wheeling and middle Ohio valley district 256,935 tons, requiring 5,138 cars.

MRS. DEAN M'KILLIP DIES SUNDAY AT 1 A. M.

Mrs. Jeanette Barton McKillip, wife of Dean McKillip, of the Jamestown and South Charleston pike died Sunday morning at 1 o'clock of scarlet fever, a week following the birth of a son.

Mrs. McKillip contracted the malady following her baby's birth from her two little daughters, Mary Alice and Pauline, aged 7 and 4 years. The little girls were seriously ill, but are recovering.

Besides her husband and the three children Mrs. McKillip leaves her mother Mrs. Margaret Barton of Xenia, and two sisters, Mrs. William Frame who lives near Jamestown and one brother Ray of Xenia.

Funeral services were conducted on the lawn at the McKillip home at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon. Friends not being admitted to the house owing to the infection in the home. Burial took place in Jamestown cemetery.

AGED MAN STRUCK BY AUTO RECOVERS

Samuel Fields, aged 85 years, of Jamestown, is recovering from injuries received when he was struck by an automobile driven by Lyle Conner at Main and Limestone streets, Jamestown, Friday evening.

The most serious injury sustained according to Dr. L. C. Walker into whose office he was taken, was due to shock owing to his advanced age. He was cut and bruised. Mr. Fields was standing on the crossing near the curb talking to a friend when the accident occurred. The Conner machine was turning the corner and in trying to avoid another car. Mr. Conner failed to notice the aged man. Mr. Fields is at the home of his son Thomas Fields in Jamestown.

The AEOLIAN-VOCALION

UNLIKE ANY OTHER PHONOGRAPH—
A NEW MUSICAL INSTRUMENT

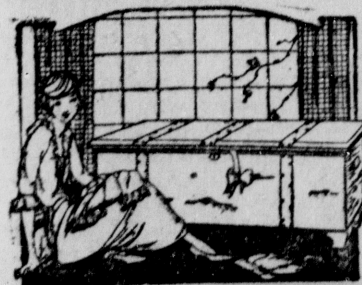

THE AEOLIAN-VOCALION will interest every phonograph owner since it represents such a remarkable advance in phonograph development.

It will interest those also who never have considered the phonograph seriously—the Vocalion tone is so clear, pure, so artistically perfect that it wins the admiration and respect of those qualified to judge music critically.

The wonderful expression device—the Graduola—quite doubles the appeal of the phonograph. For it grants literally the privilege of singing with voices of the greatest vocalists, playing with the tone of the most famous instrumentalists.

Come into Aeolian Hall for a fifteen minute test. Therein is conclusive proof of Vocalion supremacy.

Is It Yours

CLARA LOUISE KELLOGG July 12th, 1842

Clara Louise Kellogg not only was one of the most beautiful opera singers of the last century but also one of its most beautiful women. And she had another distinction—she was the first purely American opera singer to be received with great applause in Europe. It is also said that she was the first American girl who had the courage to sing in America as a native. Until recently, American opera singers have adopted foreign names when they came home to sing, since their popularity was so much greater that way.

Clara Louise Kellogg was born in Sumterville, South Carolina. Her father was an inventor and a man of great ability. She was taken North when a little girl and lived in New England and New York City, and finally was taken abroad to develop her voice. She had a pure and sweet soprano. She made her American debut in Boston when she was 19 years old and became a great success, but the Civil War interrupted her career for four years.

The first production of Faust given in America was produced under her directions. Two years later she produced Faust in London and soon had all England at her feet. A few years afterwards she gathered together a company and toured America singing grand opera in English. The great composer Berlioz heard her sing in Boston and was thoroughly charmed with her voice which he said was one of the greatest of her generation.

DINNER STORIES

The visitor to the lawyer's office stood in amazement. "I say, old man!" he exclaimed.

"Whatever has happened to you? Had a motor smash or what?" The lawyer shook his head wearily as he gingerly touched his bruised and bandaged face.

"No. You remember that case the other day when I defended a man charged with assault? Well, I made a strong plea for him on the ground that he was a fool rather than a criminal."

"I did it so well that he was acquitted and he waited for me outside the court."

A little girl who was in the habit of bringing ten cents to Sunday school, heard the superintendent say that each child in her department had been apportioned six cents a Sunday for the centenary.

Upon reaching home she ran to her mother and said, "Mother, Mr. W. says we needn't bring but six cents to Sunday school now. You know, that's five cents for Sunday school and the war tax."

The teacher had been explaining fractions to her class. When she had discussed the subject at length, wishing to see how much light had been shed, she inquired:

"Now, Bobby, which would you rather have, one apple or two halves?"

"Two halves," replied the little chap promptly.

"Oh, Bobby," exclaimed the young woman, a little disappointedly, "why would you prefer two halves?"

"Because then I could see if it was bad inside."

The house just north of the Torrence homestead now occupied by the Krepps sisters, and it was there that her marriage ceremony was performed on January 29, 1874.

Miss Katherine Ridgely died in her very young womanhood leaving Mrs. Torrence.

Mrs. Torrence died in the home to which she had come sixty three years ago as a little child to live with her aunt and uncle. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Baughman. With the exception of a very few years of her early married life it has been her constant abiding place ever since and there she raised her family of three children all of whom were with her in the last days and at the hour of her death.

Mrs. Torrence was the daughter of Leonard and Louisa Snyder Ridgely of Cumberland and Clear Springs, Maryland. At the death of her parents in her early childhood she came with her younger sister Katherine Ridgely to make her home with her Xenia relatives.

"JUST A GIRL"
BY JANE PHELPS

AN INVITATION
Chapter 60

As the days passed I realized that Mary was right—I "had" Harold Moore, to use her expression.

Gradually he commenced to talk to me. Just a few words at first; then, if I were not busy, he loitered a little and told me a bit about himself. His name at first, and that he was an assistant secretary in the Young Men's Christian Association. I didn't know much about such positions, but I was sure it didn't pay very well. He looked poor.

He asked me no questions. I liked him for that. But I also told him my name, and where I lived. It seemed he had a room near, and asked if he might sometimes walk home with me.

"I often have to go back to the office but when I do not—if you would allow me I would like to walk home with you."

"But I never walk!" I exclaimed. "It is too far—I am too tired."

"Of course—I should have known you couldn't walk such a distance after being on your feet all day. I always walk, because I get no exercise at all. But perhaps on Sunday—I might call for you and we might—"

"I would enjoy that," I interrupted, sorry for him because he seemed so embarrassed. "That is, I would enjoy it occasionally. I can't go anywhere often on Sunday. It is the only day I have to attend to little necessary things—washing and mending."

I added, not wanting him to think I was making excuses.

"I know. I do those things on Sunday too."

"Sounds terribly heathenish doesn't it? Especially for you," I returned, laughing a little. I had an idea that Y. M. C. A. young men were very religious.

"One can't be so very religious when one is poor," he replied, at which we both laughed, altho I am sure neither of us knew why. Surely being poor was nothing to laugh about. I had begun to think it was the greatest tragedy in the world.

"Dad used to say the keeping of the Golden Rule meant real religion," I said more to myself than to him.

"I try to do that. Tell me about your friend," he nodded toward Mary Murphy whom I knew had been watching us.

"She's a dear! I don't know what I should have done without her!" I replied enthusiastically, telling him more than I meant to of myself by my tone.

He looked sharply at me for a moment, but made no reply. When he rose from the table he said:

"I will call for you Sunday at 4 o'clock if that is a convenient hour."

"That will suit perfectly. I shall have finished my work by that time."

"Don't work too hard, so that you will not enjoy our walk," he admonished.

Just why that thoughtful little speech should make me think of Kenneth Lawrence, and bring a lump in my throat, I do not know.

But suddenly Harold Moore was blotted out, and Kenneth stood in his place. It was Kenneth Lawrence who had been thoughtful for me. It was Kenneth's strong lean face I saw, Kenneth's lithe, vigorous body, instead of the pale faced anemic looking Harold Moore—thin almost to emaciation. And I felt all suddenly like crying out to him to come and take me away from all that I hated, from this cold-hearted city which like all big cities seemed so hard toward those who most needed kindness.

Then, as always now when I thought of Kenneth Lawrence in this way, the hot blood dyed my cheeks, and I felt a sort of shame as if I had given myself unasked—unwanted. I had thought at times that had Kenneth cared to find me he would have done so. I little realized that the breaking up of our home, leaving no address, then my moving to Chicago without giving Claudia or any of those who might inform him any idea of my whereabouts would make locating me almost impossible. Had mother not required that promise from him, had we been allowed to correspond,—here my thoughts invariably halted.

I had nothing to do with "what might have been." It was all I could do to manage the present.

To be continued.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey went to Waynesville to spend the week end, and for the purpose of joining a picnic party to the Zoo in Cincinnati, Sunday.

SPEEDERS FINED.

After warning had been sent to The Yellow Taxicab Company of Dayton, that unless a fine of $5 and costs assessed in this city against Paul Allen, one of their drivers, for speeding, was paid at once, that a warrant would be issued for Allen, a check to cover the amount was received by Judge E. D. Smith Monday. J. Javeris of Dayton, and James Kauffman of Alpha, speeders, were fined $5 and costs by Judge Smith yesterday.

The Rev. A. W. Middleton, recently called to the pastorate of the First Reformed church, Mrs. Middleton and three of their children were warmly greeted yesterday by the congregation. The Middleton family, with the exception of the eldest son, who is with an evangelistic group in the east, arrived in Xenia Saturday, and are installed in the parsonage on West Church street. The Rev. Mr. Middleton preached to a large congregation Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peterson (Olive Wilson) of the Zoar neighborhood, are announcing the birth of a daughter, Hester Pauline.

Mrs. Koonce, wife of the Presbyterian minister at South Charleston, with Mrs. Mary Pierce spent several days last week with Mrs. T. C. Wolford of the Jamestown pike.

Mrs. Koonce, while here gave to the missionary society of the Second United Presbyterian church a short talk of her life while she and her husband were missionaries in Alaska.

Mrs. Loren Rogers of near Jamestown, who has been in a serious condition from thyroid trouble is improving. Mrs. Rogers was a patient at Grant Hospital, Columbus, for some time, but was returned home without an operation.

Prof. Raymond Fitzpatrick, who is a member of the faculty of the University of Pennsylvania is at the home of his father, William Fitzpatrick, east of Xenia, suffering from anoma. He was a patient in a hospital at Philadelphia for six weeks, and was brought to his father's home ten days ago. His condition is improving. Prof. Fitzpatrick was formerly a teacher in Cedarville college.

Mrs. William Acton of Thornhill avenue is recovering from an attack of erysipelas.

Mrs. T. C. Wolford and her daughter, Mary Anna, spent the week end in South Charleston the guests of Mrs. Ethel Huston.

HAD TO QUIT HIS JOB ON ACCOUNT DIZZY HEADACHES

Spots floated before his eyes, became weak in his stomach and nauseated. Dreco fixed him up and put him on job again.

"I was working on the new building at Otterbein College, when I was taken with such a dizzy spell and headache that I had to quit and go to bed, is the signed statement of Mr. W. H. Browne, of 59 Centre St., Westerville, 12 miles from Columbus, O. "For some days before this, I had been suffering from aching pains in my back, over my kidneys; my food did not agree with me, but seemed to sour in my stomach, bloated me up and caused much uneasiness. My bowels were constipated, so that I had to take pills almost daily. "I read daily about Dreco and what people right here at home were saying about it, so I secured a bottle to try it on my case. It went to the bottom of my troubles and I was clear of headaches and dizziness, so that I went back on the job, after losing only three days. I kept taking Dreco and now all the pains are gone from my back; my food digests without the gastritis, or bloating and every morning my bowels move free and easy without straining. Dreco is grand medicine and I am glad to add my words of praise to that of others."

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in Xenia by Sohn's Drug Store.

AROUND THE COURT HOUSE

The inheritance tax due from three estates was determined Friday by Probate Judge J. C. Marshall as follows:

In the estate of J. E. Eavey of which the gross value is $65,089 and the net market value, $59,089, the tax was fixed at $451.75 to be paid by Mrs. Etta Eavey, Mrs. Helen M. Davidson and Herman Eavey.

In the estate of Mary A. Turner, gross value $13,800, net value $12,380, the tax was determined to be $85.19 to be paid by Susan E. Fudge.

In the estate of Mrs. Annie V. Anderson valued at $7800, the inheritance tax is 5.01 to be paid by Florence A. Frame.

BRITON SAILS OVER NIAGARA FALLS TO DEATH IN BARREL

Niagara Falls, July 11.—Charles G. Stephens, of Bristol, England, was killed today when he went over the Horse Shoe falls in a barrel.

The cask in which he made the trip, though built of stout Russian oak staves and bound with steel hoops, was smashed like an egg shell on the jagged rocks at the base of the cataract.

Pieces of the barrel were picked up near the bank on the Canadian side, but Stephen's body has not been recovered. River men say that it may not come to the surface for a week or 10 days.

Stephens was 58 years old and has a wife and 11 children in Bristol, where he was a barber. He served three years in France with the British army. He had planned to make a lecture tour of England if his trip was successful.

WARNED OF DANGER

Bobbie Leach, who went over the Horse Shoe falls in 1911, told Stephens before he started that his trip would be a failure. He predicted that the barrel would not withstand the drop of 158 feet.

Early sightseers on Goat Island saw the barrel bobbing up and down in the tumbling rapids but none knew that it carried a man about to defy the cataract.

FELMS TAKEN

Members of Stephens' party followed the cask down stream in automobiles. In one of the cars a moving picture operator filmed the progress of the barrel.

As the barrel drew near the brink of the falls it seemed to stand on end, hesitate a second or two and then slide gracefully over the slope headforemost and at a slight angle.

A quarter of an hour passed; then an hour. Field glasses centered on the boiling waters at the base of the cataract revealed no sign of the cask.

OTHERS MADE TRIP

The barrel designed by Stephens for the trip was six feet three inches high. It had strap arrangements inside and an electric light system.

Stephens is the third to attempt the barrel trip over the falls. Mrs. Annie Edson Taylor went over in October, 1901, in an oak barrel, and Bobby Leach made the trip in July 1911 in a steel barrel. Both are still living.

Alonzo Earley, son of Arthur Earley, whose home is in Springfield, died in the Tuberculosis Hospital in that city Saturday. The young man was well known here. He was a student in the East High School. The funeral will be from St. John's church this city, Tuesday at 1:30. The congregation of that church is worshipping in the Wesleyan church.

George Washington, Jr., who has been attending college at Oberlin, O., is spending his vacation at home with his parents at Yellow Springs. He is in the city now the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Harriette Washington, East Second street.

ELWELL MYSTERY STILL UNSOLVED

New York, July 12.—The Elwell murder mystery has entered its second month today apparently as far from solution as at the time the famous turman and bon vivante was found slain in his West 70th street home early on the morning of June 11.

Although federal, state and municipal authorities, scores of private detectives and numerous independent investigators have been constantly at work on the case, a tangled and conflicting mass of clues has been the only result of their labors. No arrest has been made and authorities frankly admit that no arrests are imminent. Those directing the various investigations however, assert that they are following lines of inquiry that they are hopeful will produce positive results.

THE HOMER ORIGINAL PATENTED PIPELESS FURNACE

No Pipes, No Flues, No Dirt, No Dust

Note its clean cut lines, its sturdiness, its simplicity. And its operation bears out its appearance. It will heat and ventilate your house perfectly and at the same time allow you to use your basement for cold storage purposes. Because the Homer is scientifically adapted to nature's laws, no heat is wasted in the basement. The improvements made in ten years' production still maintain the original patented pipeless furnace as the standard in its field.

This advertisement will be continued each Monday describing the Homer furnace.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CONTEST A PLAIN ALL-AMERICAN AFFAIR.

One of the most significant features of the presidential campaign is that the candidates for the presidency and vice presidency are singularly alike in origins, training and experience. At a time when all sorts of bogey chasers have been asserting that the real Americanism of the United States had been greatly diluted by warring racial and national elements, so different to American ideals, it is exhilarating to note that the coming contest of Harding and Coolidge vs. Cox and Roosevelt will be in every essential an all-American contest by Americans, and for America, as only those whose personal and family histories and careers are absolutely and characteristically American, can make it.

The very fact that not long before he died President Roosevelt in advocating a more intensive Americanism referred to the danger that lay "in the United States becoming a mere ploylot, international boarding-house" led many, to assert that that unstable condition had already arrived. But these prophets of evil, many of whom made up for their ignorance of American life by their sheer assertiveness that the old American spirit was gone forever, have been absolutely bowled out by what happened at Chicago and San Francisco. As for the presidential candidates, Harding and Cox, nothing could be more old-fashioned and American than their careers as boys on a farm, hard workers ever, whether in printing shop or at the editorial desk, or in public life, and with family relationships and ancestry that repeat the ever-familiar story of the simple folk of the American countryside from whom spring the self-made men and the captains of industry who are never very far away from the shirt sleeves of their grandfathers or of their own immediate circle and are proud of the fact.

THE VOLSTEAD ACT PUZZLES TWO UNITED STATES OFFICIALS.

A United States commissioner and an assistant United States district attorney in Boston, Thursday, declared they did not understand the Volstead act.

Fred Reed, of Lawrence, at a hearing before Commissioner William A. Hayes, on charges of selling whisky, was asked by Lewis Goldberg, assistant United States attorney, if he had ever heard of the Volstead act. The defendant replied, "Yes, but I don't know what it means," to which the attorney responded that he did not need to be ashamed, because "we are all in the same class." The commissioner, leaning over from the bench, added, "And I'm in that class, too."

Reed, who said he was keeping store for a druggist friend when a man entered and asked for some whisky for a sick man, was held for the grand jury. It developed the man who bought the liquor was a prohibition-enforcement agent.

SOME XENIA MOTHERS FELT THESE THINGS.

I can not tell you what prohibition means to motherhood. Ask the thousands of women who have looked upon the little blue, shivering hands and feet of their little children, and see the wan, hungry faces, while the fathers were putting their wages across the bar of the saloon. Ask those who saw their children beaten and bruised by their own fathers. Ask the mothers who reached out arms of ecstatic motherhood and had placed in them the imbecile, the epileptic, the malformed, the alcoholic and syphilitic children. Ask them. They can tell you. No others can. Ask the women who saw their fair-haired children, their brilliant sons and their beautiful daughters come back to them loathsome drunkards and outcast women. Ask them what prohibition means. And yet that is only the negative side of it. Ask the girls of a generation hence, the girls with shining faces, who look out toward the future, what prohibition means to motherhood! They will thank God for these victories.—Madeline Southerd.

RECIPES FOR A DAY
Breakfast Stew—Chop fine one cup of cold meat. Melt two tablespoons butter in frying pan, add three tablespoons flour and stir until well browned. Then add gradually two cups hot water, soup stock or milk. Season with half teaspoon salt, dash of pepper, one-eighth teaspoon ground cloves. Stir until boiling, add the chopped meat and serve on squares of toast. Garnish with slice of lemon.
Rice Muffins—Sift together one and one-half cups flour, one-quarter cup salt, one and one-half teaspoons baking powder. Add one-half cup boiled rice and gradually one-half cup milk, one well beaten egg and two tablespoons butter. Fill muffin pans two-thirds full and bake in moderate oven twenty-five minutes.
Fruit Cream—Make soft custard and pour over fresh fruit. Let stand until cold and serve with whipped cream.

and curdles pour in cold bowl and beat with egg beater.
Lettuce Salad—Wash and break one head of lettuce in small pieces. Cut one hard boiled egg in shreds over it and cover with salad dressing.

TRY THESE
Neve: place meat directly on ice. Save all dry cheese and use for grating.
Barley crust can be used for squash pie.
Always salt meat after, not before cooking.
Fruits cooked without sugar are most wholesome.
Beef drippings are good shortening for pie crusts.
Stuff dates with marshmallows; they are delicious.
Baked apples are delicious stuffed with raisins and chopped nuts.
Never mix old and new milk if you expect the new milk to keep sweet.
Cider apple sauce is excellent with roast pork; also spiced crab-apple jelly.
Bits of flesh and bones of a roast fowl are full of possibilities for another meal.
Your tea leaves will go twice as far if ground before using and make the flavor more delicate.
Potatoes, properly boiled, should be drained, then shaken over the flame for a minute until they are light and mealy.

COOKIES
One box of toasted corn flakes, two well beaten eggs, one cup sugar, two tablespoons fat, one-half teaspoon salt, two teaspoons vanilla, two cups shredded cocoanut, one-half cup milk. Drop in inverted cake tin; spread into circular shape with knife first dipped in cold water. Bake in moderate oven. They would be just fine for parties, picnics and many other occasions.

REV. H. J. SIMPSON, FORMER PASTOR HERE SUES WIFE FOR DIVORCE IN PONTIAC, MICH.. PETITION CHARGES WIFE DESERTED HIM

The Rev. Henry Jerome Simpson, former rector of Christ Episcopal church, Xenia, now serving All Saints' church, the most fashionable church of Pontiac, Mich., has brought suit for divorce from Mrs. Fannie Selby Simpson, charging cruelty and desertion.

The suit was filed in Circuit Court at Pontiac late Wednesday. In his petition the Rev. Mr. Simpson says that he has not seen his wife since June 1, 1918, when he left for overseas service as a Y. M. C. A. Secretary. When he returned in September 1919, he learned that she had left the rectory two weeks before.

Mr. Simpson believes that his wife is in Wilmington, Del. He received a letter from her on his arrival in New York from overseas, he says, and has not heard from her since.

The Rev. Mr. Simpson came to Xenia as a lay preacher for Christ church, and was ordained to the priesthood in 1906, immediately receiving his appointment as rector of Christ church. He married Fannie V. Selby in New Lexington, June 21, 1906, and brought her here as a bride. He remained here as rector of Christ church for several years, leaving for a short time and later returning to the same charge for a year or so. He was very popular with people of all creeds during his rectorate here, and local people knew nothing of any marital unhappiness. During his rectorate, the Rev. Mr. Simpson designed and built the beautiful little church of the Episcopal congregation, himself superintending all the construction, and even taking active part in the labor.

Mr. Simpson left here to accept the rectorate of St. Paul's Episcopal church in Lansing, Mich., where the church now occupied by the congregation, one of the most beautiful in the state, was built during his rectorate. Later he was for two years secretary of the Episcopal diocese of Michigan, with offices in Detroit.

In his petition for divorce Mr. Simpson charges his wife with having an ungovernable temper. He says that she refused to care properly for their home, and that she detested married life. He also says that she interfered with his church work by manifesting a hostile attitude toward certain members of his parish. For days at a time, he charges, his wife would not speak to him. Their married life was never happy, he says. The Simpsons have no children.

Mr. Simpson is a graduate of Kenyon College, Gambier, O. Before entering the ministry he was assistant civil engineer of the Hocking Valley Railroad, at Columbus, for two years. He received his engineering education at the Ohio State University.

MRS. MYRTLE REEVES ASKS FOR DIVORCE

Alleging abandonment and gross neglect of duty, Mrs. Myrtle Reeves of Spring Valley has sued for divorce from William Reeves. The Spring Valley National Bank is made a party defendant. An injunction was allowed preventing the defendant disposing of, or encumbering property, or from interfering with the plaintiff or her child, and preventing the bank paying to the defendant money on deposit there.

The petition recites that the defendant owns one-half interest in three lots in Spring Valley; one-half interest in a tobacco crop worth about $1000, owns a Ford truck and trailer and has money in the bank. They were married May 10, 1904. She asks for custody of the 14 year old son, and alimony.

WOOD'S DAUGHTER GOES TO FRANCE

Miss Louise Wood, photographed just before sailing.

Miss Louise Wood, daughter of Major General Leonard Wood, sailed a few days ago for France, where she will act as a driver for the American committee for devastated France. Miss Wood, who rather closely resembles in appearance her famous father, is shown here in the uniform she will wear while engaged in her work abroad.

CHILD IS ROBBED BY OLDER BOY

A $5 bill was stolen from five year old Irvin Marshall, son of Probate Judge J. C. Marshall Monday morning, on west Market street, by a boy about 12 years of age. Judge Marshall believes that the thief was a boy whom he noticed standing near when he gave the bill to the child a few moments before the robbery. The little fellow started for home with the money, running. The big boy followed him, and took the bill from him. Irvin hurried home and told his mother of the robbery. Police were notified and a hunt was made for the boy. The lad is described as barefooted, wearing blue overalls and a straw hat.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. COATES

Funeral services for Mrs. Maggie Coates, 70 years of age, who died at her home on Third street at two o'clock Monday afternoon. The services were in charge of Rev. Charles Bennett of the First M. E. Church. Burial was made in Woodland cemetery, the pallbearers being Thomas McCann, Fred Trott, John and Lawrence Coates and Lawrence and James Wakely.

GOVERNMENT TO ADMIT 2000 AUSTRIAN COOKS

Vienna, July 12.—The Vienna newspapers are printing advertisements for 2000 Austrian women cooks to go to Chicago. It is explained in the advertisement that Washington will authorize their admission.

THE CIRCUIT.

Soon the statesmen presidential, candidates for White House fame, in a heat that's pestilential, will pursue the modern game; o'er the country they'll be chasing, making speeches here and there, with the perspiration racing down their noses and their hair. And their collars will be wilted, and their shirtfronts will be wet, and their neckties will be tilted, and their whiskers dripping sweat. Oh, 'twere better if we knew them at a distance, I maintain, for we're thinking, when we view them, they look neither safe nor sane. Who can hold his admiration for a man whose neck is red, who has dampened down the nation with the lakes of sweat he's shed? In the days when I was younger men of presidential size had no fierce or frenzied hunger for the mob's approving cries. In the distance, calm and stately, they remained through all the fuss, doing nothing, nobly, greatly, and they made a hit with us. Of the candidate collection who would tread the White House way, few will stand a close inspection on a redhot summer day.

MRS. MARY WILLIAMS DIES IN DAYTON

Mrs. Mary Williams, aged 79, widow of John S. Williams, died at 11:25 Sunday at the Dayton State Hospital. Mrs. Williams is survived by three children. Her husband died last February. The body was brought to Xenia Sunday afternoon by Undertaker R. M. Neel. Funeral services will take place at the undertaker's chapel at 11, Wednesday morning.

YOUTH WANTED HERE FOR NON SUPPORT IS FOUND IN OKLAHOMA

Irwin Beyke Sentenced On Charge Filed By Girl-Wife.

Arrested in Boynton, Okla., on a charge of non support made by his girl wife, Merle Williamson Beyke, Irwin Beyke, aged 19, was brought to Xenia in the custody of J. E. Watts, probate court officer, who made the trip to Oklahoma for that purpose. They arrived home Saturday night, and were accompanied by the young man's father, Steven Beyke, who was with another son, Joseph Beyke at Muskogee, Okla.

In probate court Monday morning young Beyke entered a plea of guilty to the charge before Probate Judge J. C. Marshall. The court imposed a fine of $10 and costs, and a sentence of nine months in the work house. Both were suspended upon condition that the costs including the expenses incident to the trip to and from Oklahoma be paid as well as a doctor's and nurse's bill of $70 in connection with the birth of the defendant's child, and $4 a week paid into the court for the support of the babe, the whole to be secured by a bond of $1000. The entire costs including payment of the $70 expenses, amount to about $200. The young defendant's father told the court that this amount would be met and bond provided for on once.

Officer J. E. Watts started on the trip to Oklahoma a week ago, and after securing requisition papers at Oklahoma City, went to Muskogee, where the whereabouts of the young man were learned after considerable difficulty. He was employed in a salaried position in that city. The Beyke infant is about five weeks old. Mrs. Beyke was represented in court by Judge E. D. Smith.

YELLOW SPRINGS MAN IS INJURED

Kenneth Weiss of Yellow Springs was slightly hurt when the Ford sedan in which he was riding with Wilmont Littleton also of Yellow Springs was side swiped by another car, and overturned down an embankment on the Springfield pike north of Goose station Saturday night. Littleton was unhurt. The car was badly damaged.

The accident was caused, it is said, when a truck driven by Howard Adams of Yellow Springs, crowded the sedan too far to the side of the road.

BEAUTY CHATS

Fancy clothes are not necessarily good clothes. The sooner a girl realizes this, the sooner will she become a really well dressed person. The best clothes are always the simplest ones. In Paris the most expensive gowns are almost bare of ornamentation. They depend for their beauty upon grace and originality of line and exquisite quality of material.

If you want proof of this, go through the best shop and the cheapest shop of your town and compare the clothes. Or better yet, go through any large store and look at their most expensive and their cheapest dresses—the cheapest ones are always the most highly ornamented.

Ornamentation is cheap and is usually used to disguise lack of quality. Cheap machine embroideries will have very lavish designs; exquisite hand embroidery will be used sparingly. Cheap shoes are more apt to be fancy in cut than good ones.

If you want to be well dressed, dress as simply as possible—and if you are a business girl, remember that the office is the last place in the world to display fancy garments. You need not necessarily dress yourself every day in a blue serge skirt and a tailored skirt, but you should certainly not wear picture hats of black mauline and jet. French heel satin slippers and ruffled net dresses to an office. You can dress in tailored suits and frocks and still wear colors that are becoming and still have all the feminine softness of attire that you wish.

Blonde—Use cold cream on hands that are rough and chapped. Tell your brother that the safest way to have warts removed is to have a doctor do it.

A. M.—Pure cold cream will not injure even the most sensitive skin. Some complexions, of course, require a cream that is lighter in quality. Send me a letter with a self-addressed and stamped envelope enclosed, and I will mail you a formula for a cleansing cream or for a honey and almond lotion which is so delicate that it will agree with any skin.

Edna—Egyptian henna used pure strength will stain gray or white hair an auburn shade. The longer it is left on, the more brilliant it will become. The best way to use it is to make a thin paste of powdered Egyptian henna and hot water, and spread this over the hair after it has been washed and dried. It can be left on from 15 minutes to two hours, depending on the hair and the shade of red desired. You will have to experiment to find out how long you require.

Weston—Send me a letter with a self-addressed and stamped envelope enclosed for a tonic for falling hair.

PRISONER SEEKS DEATH

Marion, Ohio, July 11.—David M. Griffith, under arrest here in connection with the shooting to death of his sixteen year old daughter last week, at Prospect, today made a futile attempt at suicide in the county jail by slashing himself with a penknife. Griffith who lost both legs in a railroad accident 17 years ago had hidden the knife in one of his cork legs.

GREEK LETTER MEN TO MEET

Newark, Ohio, July 11.—The annual national convention of the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity will open a three-day convention here tomorrow morning. Six hundred delegates, representing every state in the Union will be here and nearly half that number already have arrived. Judge M. V. Brumbaugh, of Eaton, Ohio, President of the organization, will preside.

ORPHIUM TO-NIGHT

Hallmark 5 reel special featuring the exquisite star ANNA BOS. "Carmen of the North" is a story of romance and adventure, full of red blooded vigor and as thrilling as any drama ever written. The action is swift, the situations tense and the heart interest enthralling.

"THE SCREAMING SHADOW"
In 2 reels with BEN WILSON and NEVA GERBER. SEE this show and learn to live forever.

TUESDAY NIGHT

"IMPOSSIBLE CATHERINE"
Pathe 5 reel Star series featuring VIRGINIA PEARSON and SHELDON LEWIS. The picture is good for many a hearty laugh, with an occasional moment of breathless suspense over some tense situation. A feature of the film not to be overlooked is the scenery. Lake Champlain, Lake George and the Schroeon River furnished the beautiful pictorial background for the film. John B. O'Brien directed. Sheldon Lewis is featured in the role of White Cloud, an Indian.

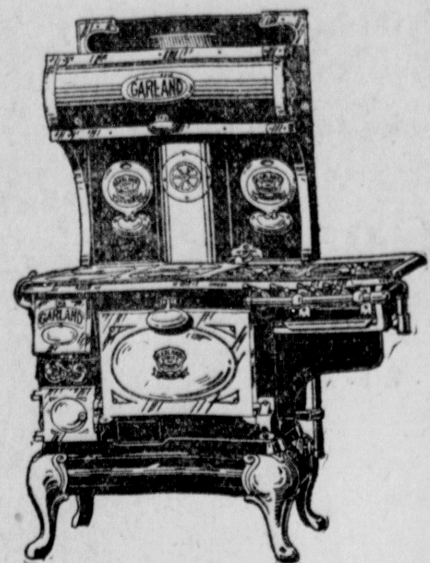

"ELMO THE FEARLESS"
In two reels with the renowned star ELMO LINCOLN. Story of a great battle of wits and brawn.

POLICE RUN DOWN CLUE IN MURDER

Dayton, O., July 12.—New developments which may lead to the arrest of the murderer of Roy N. Shay 19, Western Union messenger, will be worked on today by police and county officials. One crew which authorities regard as the most substantial yet received since the night of the murder will be sifted today.

Police last night discredited the report that Louis Weisheit residing at the Stag hotel, who walked into police headquarters, Saturday night requesting protection, may be implicated in the Shay murder. Police say that Weisheit has never been in any trouble.

Police yesterday afternoon searched the river for Shay's motorcycle near where the body was found, but without success. No more efforts will be made to recover the car now until the river recedes.

GIRL SHOT BY MAN IS SLOWLY DECLINING

Dayton July 12.—Pretty Georgia Ooten, 20-year-old typist who was shot three times Thursday by W. C. Wysong, her 65-year-old suitor, is gradually growing weaker at the Miami Valley hospital. Little hope is held for her recovery.

At her side sits her mother, Mrs. H. Ooten, of Danville, Ky., patiently waiting for her daughter to recover. Although the girl rallied after undergoing a blood transfusion, in which a pint of blood was injected into her veins, hospital attaches say she is growing weaker.

Wysong is in the county jail under a $10,000 bond, charged with shooting to kill. If the girl dies he will be charged with first degree murder, police say.

LOCAL PACER MAKING GOOD TIME THIS YEAR

Frances D. J. W. Faulkner's fast pacer, which has been cutting a wide swathe on the northern Ohio tracks so far this season will start this week at Rock Port, Cleveland, after a successful season on the ovals.

The local mare was second in the 2:10 pace at the North Randall track last week, pacing the mile in 2:07 1-4 and she has been showing good form all season. She is entered in the 2:10 pace at Rockport this week, a half-mile track, where Betty K., the little trotter owned by R. S. Kingsbury, of this city, will also start. In seven starts this season the Faulkner pacer has finished in the money every time.

On The Spur of The Moment

THEM'S MY SENTIMENTS.

Give me a great big soup plate,
Give me a great big spoon.
Give me a great big shortcake.
Don't call me away too soon.

I want "cake" made like biscuit,
The real old-fashioned kind;
Cake like mother tried to make,
Before she lost her mind.

I want a whole lot of berries,
With strawberry juice on the side,
And I want a great big napkin
To dam up the crimson tide.

For I love to splash in my shortcake
And eat with a right-arm swing,
Like a movie soup coloratura
At the Ritz on a week-end fling.

So send me a flat-footed waiter,
The kind that will hurry back,
And let him take my order,
While I give good manners the sack.

And then I will guzzle and guzzle
And wallow up to my ears;
For I'd rather have a shortcake
Than twenty thousand beers.

—Karl K. Kitchin.

LAY OFF THAT STUFF.

Dear Roy: We note that you have spent a few days on a bed of pain and hope that you are well again. Your clever column has made us very fond of you. On the other hand, should anything ever happen to you, please try to send us a message on our ouija board. We should enjoy hearing from you. Always,
Marcel Steinbrugge.

WHAT'D U THINK IT WAS?

The two dear girls on our right were talking animatedly:
"She's good looking, but I don't think she's all she ought to be."
"Neither do I. Look at the way she did down in front of the theater that night!"
"That's what I say. But she does show some speed."
"Speed, oh, boy. And roughness—you can always depend on her for that."

"Her lines aren't bad."
"I guess that's what took dad's eye. You know dad."
"Do I? But, privately, I think she's making him sorry."
"That's the best thing she does—all paint and form, and nothin' much under the hood."
"I think dad's going to get rid of her before long. She's burning up his dough too fast."

"Who is the unspeakable person?" we inquired. "I'd like to meet her."
"Person? Djeret that, Mayme? Why, listen, son, we were talking about dad's new car."

Alas and alack that we should live to see the day when the typewriter is being put out of business by the ouija board.

Because wrist watches gained favor on account of their convenience, is that any reason for shortening the girls' skirts as a convenience for the knee watches?
